

HOLIDAYS LAST QUARTER 2023...

The last quarter of the year is upon us, which means there are a number of national and international holidays in the coming months. These holidays may result in driving bans and/or temporary business closures.

Of course, we will do our utmost to adapt our services and schedules to these circumstances as efficiently as possible. However, we would like to point out that changes to our services and delivery times cannot be completely avoided. Please bear this in mind, especially around the following dates.

REFORMATION DAY 31 OCTOBER..

Adjusted services in week 44 for Germany. Deliveries may be delayed by up to one week. Collection of goods is possible, for this we would like to receive your orders by Friday 27 October at the latest.

ALL SAINTS DAY 1 NOVEMBER..

Adjusted services in week 44 for Belgium, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Deliveries may be delayed by up to one week. Collection of goods is possible, for this we would like to receive your orders by Friday 27 October at the latest.

Specific to France: full service throughout France in week 43, very limited service possible in week 44 and service as usual in week 45.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR..

To ensure that your goods reach their destination before Christmas, your B2C shipments must reach Jan Krediet by 8 December at the latest. For B2B shipments, this is 15 December at the latest.

There will be no international services in week 52 and limited services in week 1. This does not apply to our national services, which will be fully available in week 52 and week 1. Our offices and warehouses will be closed on 25 and 26 December and 1 January.
